Greetings and Welcome

Welcome to the 2018 Caterham Festival. Once again, we have many events for you to enjoy. We trust there is something for everyone and what we originally envisaged as a week-long festival now runs for over 4 weeks. This will be the 10th Caterham Festival with many of your favourite events as well as some new ones. I hope you will all be able to get out and to try something different.

The Festival does cost a lot to put on and last year made a considerable loss. Some events won’t happen this time but may return in the future. We are now beneficiaries of the Tandridge lottery, please do buy a ticket and support us.

Many groups approach us and ask to do something for the Festival. Fantastic news, it’s something for you, something else happening in Caterham and something that someone else is organising. Happy to include such events in the Festival program. Once again, the Miller Centre are organising three days of Jazz at different locations in Caterham Valley and there are some top performers coming.

Further details about many events will soon be available on our website, caterhamfestival.org or on our Facebook page. I hope I will see you there.

Each year I attend as many events as I can and have a great time meeting people and trying out new things. I meet many different people there and it is a pleasure to see so many happy people doing something different.

To everyone who helps us by running events, by assisting at events and helping the organisers, I send my very grateful thanks. Caterham is a marvellous place to live which is thanks to you all for making it that way.

Andy Parr M.B.E.
Chairman

Play 1 – Out of the Shadows, devised and performed by Prospero Theatre School. Drawing upon their own experiences and those of young people they knew and had heard about; young people whose mental health had been affected by bullying. This is their Fight Song.

Play 2 – In Search of Happiness by Big Act Theatre School Our creative process led to a journey through literature, characters, poetry, song, dance, religion, fables and folklore, and ended up with us devising our own Wonderland, where we are all lost like Alice, all utterly mad as Hatters, and all searching for someone to sit with us in the dark.

Film 1 Always Tell Someone – A short film by Nigel Simmonds. This animated film encourages children to tell a responsible adult when a grown-up is really shouting at them or other children who they are with. Talking to the right people about problems can make them go away and make you feel much happier

Film 2 Positive Life A short film by motivational videographers Matt Shaw and Andrew Braun

Film 3 Friday Club Rules A short film by the participants of Prospero’s Friday Club.

I need to have a Word with you – Memoir by Michael Hartigan

I Need to Have a Word with You is an autobiographical mental health memoir by young writer and performer Michael Hartigan. It is a moving perspective on the way the world changes for a young man with autism when the safe spaces he needed so badly prove treacherous.

Play 1 – The Terrible Unending Why’s by Trinity School. Two friends hooked on social media become famous in their own right. Heavily influenced by the adrenaline rush of the next like and the comments on the last photo posted, their journey of discovery is confused by a constant need for approval, until something greater and altogether more tragic happens. After the incident one friend is left alone to pick up the pieces and try to understand what could have gone so horribly wrong.

Play 2 – Bastards in the Black Hole by Prospero Theatre. Bastards is the debut play of talented young writer Rebecca Riley, written in the physical ensemble style of Prospero. Ashley, a young performer, almost watches as her ambition and acute stage fright collide. So, you’ve shut yourself in a costume cupboard with four mannequins and you can’t breathe. Where do you go from here?

Play 3 – Rational Self Interest by Hashtag Josh Varty. An artist at the end of his career, and a world seen only through computer screens. What other choice is there but the most horrifying and dark? A stark and disturbingly funny look at the madness that is the mental health system.
